"Style implies attitude, attitude, attitude."

– Iris Apfel

What are you wearing?

An exotic fur coat that I wear as a dress, and a Spanish colonial necklace made of wooden beads and old rope.

What are you carrying?

A Madison Op Art bag. I love it. And they didn't pay me to say that! I like the graphic print. The colors look so chic with fur.

What's in your bag?

Lipstick, my signature tortoise shell glasses with dark gray lenses, crackers, hand sanitizer, my Mother's silver flask (empty), a cell phone (my one bow to technology) and enough cash for a taxi.

Where are you going today?

To my company, Old World Weavers. We do exquisite reproductions of luxurious antique fabrics.

Where are you going tonight?

Going to dinner at a friend's house on Madison.

Will you change your outfit?

Of course. Every occasion is an opportunity to dress up.
