THE COACH STORY

Fifty years ago, we began making leather bags, belts and billfolds in a small workshop where six craftspeople created each piece by hand. Our factory has grown quite a bit since then, but the items we sell are still handmade by skilled workers who pride themselves on their dedication to detail. The leather we use for our bags is a full-grain, glove-tanned cowhide. Our wallets and many of our accessories are made of supple water buffalo calfskin. These leathers are rendered buttery-soft by our private tanning formula, which causes them to deepen and soften with wear. This Fall, we're pleased to introduce new Classic silhouettes and additions to our Spectator Collection. Each is handmade in the Coach® tradition—a tradition that renders them American classics.

Pictured Clockwise from bottom left: Metropolitan Brief Bag (pg. 57), Binocular Bag (pg. 7), Duffle Drawstring (pg. 42), 1 7/8" Nubuc Suede Belt (pg. 32), 1 1/2" Hand-Woven Braided Belt (pg. 32). Pictured on cover: Saddle Bag (pg. 11).

No machine can provide the special qualities that distinguish Coach leathergoods.

OUR COLORS

Because we don't wish to camouflage the natural beauty of our leathers with pigments or sealers, Coach colors aren't painted on. They're achieved instead with dyes so gentle, it takes several days for them to soak through. This process may seem time consuming, but it's the only way to color leather without concealing its natural markings or "grain."

The natural shades of Coach leather are difficult to reproduce in print. Please keep in mind that the samples below are intended only as a guide. We'll be happy to send you a set of real leather swatches at your request.

OUR GUARANTEE

Every product we sell is handmade—nearly all in our own factory, some by selected artisans who work closely with us. We do our best to make sure you'll be happy with every Coach purchase. However, should any item fall short of your expectations, by all means return it to us upon receipt. We'll send you a prompt refund or replacement, whichever you prefer. Naturally, this guarantee extends to purchases made in any Coach Store.

COACH CLASSICS

This season we've added five new Classic styles with some dramatic changes that give the collection a fresh perspective. The innovative springlock closure on the Avenue and Binocular Bags creates a look that's very different from our traditional turnlock. The Saddle Bag features our first hidden magnetic snap and the Carlyle Bag introduces a tubular collar treatment. Along with the Ranch Bag, these additions add excitement to the tradition of Coach Classics.

A Coach wallet is the product of many skilled hands. Its close, even stitches are the work of a patient seamster who must guide several layers of leather under the needle at once. Our collection offers a broad range of styles with an abundance of practical features.

Your Coach® Deserves Classic Care

Coach Leather Lotion meets the exacting standards that our natural, full-grain leathers demand. Formulated especially for Coach, this unique wax-free formula allows leather to breathe and imparts a soft suppleness. It removes surface dirt and enhances the lustre of naturally tanned cowhide without masking its extraordinary qualities. If used on Water Buffalo Calfskin, the leather will darken significantly. Therefore, it is specifically recommended for use on Coach bags and briefcases.

Enhance and refurbish the leather's unique character with Coach Leather Lotion.

№1006 Coach Leather Lotion (4 oz.) $6.00

BELTS FOR MEN

Coach belts have long been distinguished by their solid brass buckles which are cast in sand by an English foundry that has been making equestrian hardware for over a hundred years. The recent introduction of our sterling silver plate buckle marks the birth of a new tradition. The Silver Buckle Belt, along with our new Woven Water Buffalo Belt greatly expands the selection of styles in our collection of belts for men.

LIGHTWEIGHT COLLECTION

Here we've cut our supple glove-tanned cowhide slightly leaner to create lighter, unconstructed bags that conform to the body for a softer silhouette. Lightweights include the exquisite detailing you've come to expect from Coach—brass hardware, handy inside pockets, handsome outside stitching. And, because the interiors are roomy enough to carry a multitude of essentials, we've reinforced the seams to withstand 100 lbs. of stress.

WALLETS FOR MEN

Coach wallets are made of water buffalo calfskin, the leather we've found most suited to making turned-edge leather goods. It is thin. It is firm. It has the "squeak" of a vegetable-tanned leather and the natural graining of a fine piece of wood. Over time, it acquires a bright, polished appearance that enhances the natural beauty of markings just below its surface. This is why no two Coach wallets look exactly alike.
