A COACH TRADITION

A Coach sample maker with over 50 years experience when asked about his craft recently said, "You never cease to learn. There are new ways, new materials, and you have to adapt yourself."

The spirit and enthusiasm of this comment capture the essence of sample making for it is in the sample maker's hands that a designer's sketch becomes a new style. Creating fine leathergoods is not about technology, it is an art that requires knowledge and a mastery of skills from which to create. The sample makers at Coach describe their craft as something passed on generation to generation. Their work sustains the fine art of leather making and the tradition of Coach.

Sheridan Collection

The Sheridan Collection introduces a fresh design perspective. Created from a light weight, pebble textured leather, Sheridan bags combine softness and durability.

Styles that can go day into night, day after day, Sheridan's scratch and stain resistant leather over time retains a new appearance. A collection of varied shapes, every bag includes faille jacquard lining, bridle leather trim, domed leather tabs and brass hardware.
