THE SHERIDAN COLLECTION

“Frank Lloyd Wright was a great originator, fascinated with form and function and their relationship with the environment. So it was only fitting that I grew up in a home, designed and built by my father. I discovered the joy of living by adapting to our surroundings, rather than typically the other way around.”

Frank Lloyd Wright's great granddaughter, Tracy Lloyd Wright, with her Coach Hollister Tote.

“Daniel Boone was one of the first explorers of the American frontier. He was a strong, brave and amicable man who learned how to live in the American wilderness. Whenever civilization caught up to Daniel Boone, he simply moved on. He discovered the Wilderness Trail, which brought over 200,000 people to Kentucky.”

Daniel Boone's great great great great grandson, William Ingersoll, with his Coach Monterey Car Coat.
